MR. RAMSCAR BEFORE JUSTICE BIXBY.

In accordance with the decision of Justice Lawrence that William H. Ramscar was entitled to a preliminary examination, he was taken before Pohce Justice Bixby, at the Jefferson Market Contt, yesterday morning. Mr. Ramscar is charged with causing the death of several children at the Unsectarian Home, of which he is the superintendent. Mrs. Ramscar was present with her husband. Assistant District-Attorney Vincent conducted the examination, and Charles S. Spencer appeared as counsel for Mr. Ramscar. Mrs. Anno Sloegim, the mother of the little girl, Bessie, whose death the coroner's jury found to be due to neglect on the part of Mr. Ramscar, was the first witness examined. She lives at No. 38 Charles'st. She stated that she left the girl Bessie in Mr. Ramscar's charge on March 14. She saw her once a week until her death. Bessie always expressed herselt as being happy and contented with her life at Mr. Ramscar's. Bessie died on Saturday, May 20. She had seen her on the Tuesday before, when she was well and happy and was going to school. On May 24 she received word from Mr. Ramscar that Bessie was doad. She saw the dead body of Bessie that day at the Morgue. The child had possessed robust health previous to becoming an inmate of Mr. Ramscar's home.

THE EMIGRATION BOARD'S QUANDARY.

"What is to become of us if Castle Garden is closed on Saturday, as the commissioners threaten?" said a large number of immigrants yesterday, as well as the employes of the commission. The sixtien foreign steamship lines would not recede from the position taken on Wednesday, when they declared that they would not make any contract to contribute 50 cents for each of the immigrants landed at this port, Mr. Starr went to Albany yesterday to inform the Governor of the present embarrassed condition of the commissioners owing to the refusal of the steamship companies to agree to the various propositions made by them and of the determination to close Castle Garden and Ward's Island to-morrow. It was deemed necessary to inform the Governor of the action to be taken.

It was stated by Secretary Jackson that the commission is absolutely without funds, and is in debt $26,000 for expenses since May 1. There have arrived at this port since January 1 251,080 immigrants, 38,21d of whom came in the last twelve days, and as many more are expected in the next two weeks. There are about $90 sick and destinate immigrants on Ward's Island, of whom 90 are instance. If the institutions on Ward's Island are closed it is a problem what will be done with these people.

closed it is a problem what will be done with these people.

At the conference of the steamship agents on Wednesday saxteen of the twenty-one passenger-earlying lines were represented, including all of the regular ones excepting the Gaion, Anchor and State. Mr. De Bebian, of the General Transatiantic (French) Line, was at the meeting only a few moments. The Emigration Commissioners have a letter from the company he represents, offering to eafter into a contract with them, but as the amount paid by one one would be insufficient to support Castle Garden and the other institutions, the proposition is in abeyance. When Mr. Sandford, secretary of the North Atlantac Conference, was asked for information as to the lines represented at the meeting, and what action would be taken with regard to the care of immigrants if Castle Garden was closed, he smiled and said, "You will have to ask my bosses." His "bosses," the steamship agents, referred Time Transuner reporter to Mr. Sandford. Some of the agents treated the matter lightly and said: "On, we are not nitial of the threats of the commissioners. Castle Garden will not be closed; they have threatened that before." Another gave the following as his opinion: "If Castle Garden is closed, we will take eare of the immigrants as the American line does in Philadelphia—have a Castle Garden and hospitals of our own. Of course, it will take us several days to make the necessary arrangements, but we can doit." Another said: "The immigrants county here are of great benefit to the country, and New-York State should contribute two-thirds and the Government the other third of the money necessary for their care and maintenance." The epinion of another was as follows: "If Castle Garden is closed, the immigrants will fear that they now have through the same protection that they now have through the same protection that they now have through the sumpersor of these institutions, and ou cents for each is not a large amount."

NEW-JERSEY TROOPS IN THE FIELD.

There was a great deal of smoke and enthusiasm vesteriday at West Rutherfurd, on the New-York, Lake Eric and Western Railroad, about ten miles from this city. It was the annual field day of the first Brigade of the New-Jersey National Guard, and special trains discharged companies of soldiers during the forenoon until the landscape was gay with uniforms. The place selected for the manœuvres was Santiago Park, a large tract lying west of the railroad and bordered on the north by the Passaic River. The place had not been made public, and the consequence was that the crowd of spectators was not large enough to be troublesome. There were no sentries and the sight-seers were not molested as long as they kept out of the path of the troops and the line of fire. The brigade consists of the 1st Regiment (Newark), Colonel Edward A. Campbell; 4th Regiment Jersey City and Passaic), Colonel Dadley S. Steele: 5th Regiment (Newark), Colonel Levi R. Bernard; 9th Kegiment (Hoboken), Colonel Major J. W. Congdon, and 2d Battalion (Hackensack), Major J. V. Moore. For the purpose of a shain battle, the troops were divided into two bodies. The attacking force was composed of the 1st and 4th Regiments and the two battalions, and was led by Colonel Bernard commanding. The battle began at 11:30. The attacking forces were the 5th and 9th, Colonel Bernard commanding. The battle began at 11:30. The attacking forces were the first and the two defending regiments occupied a thicket in front of the old Holsman mansion, now a hotel. After a great deal of galioping to and fro, without apparent object, by gold-laced and white-heineted officers, the offensive army deployed as skirmishers across the Erie track to feel the enemy's position. The skirmishers on the other side rose from the tall grass and opened fire. Under the cover of their skirmishers, the aftencing front when the skirmishers on the other side rose from the thicket to the northeast. A MARRIAGE INTERFERED WITH.

Cards were issued recently for the marriage of Miss L. Thebaud, daughter of Mrs. Laura Thebaud, of Maison, N. J., and Hugh K. Toler, grandson of ex-Governor Pennington, of New-Jersey. The wedding was aunounced to take place on Wednesday night, at the house of the bride's mother, adjoining the estate of the late Judge Lathrop, at Madison. The Thebauds are Roman Catholies and Mr. Toler is a Protestant. The rule of the Roman Catholie Church against marriages of communicants with Protestants, it had been understood, would not be enforced. It was stated that Bishop Wigger, of the Roman Catholie Diocese, had given the assurance that there would be no interference with the arrangements for the marriage at the house. Mrs. Thebaud gave her orders to caterers and others, and the house was profusely adorned with choice flowers. On Tuesday, however, Bishop Wigger forbade the ceremony. Notices were sent to all the invited gnests announcing the fact and recalling the invitation to the marriage ceremony, but renewing those to the reception. It was stated that the Bishop had forbidden the ceremony and had made a threat of excommunication in case it was afterward performed by a Protestant elergyman.

In compliance with the requirements of the Bishop, the couple repaired to the house of the resident priest of Madison, and were by hin united after a modified ceremony. The reception, which afterward followed at the house of the bride's mother, was attended by a large company, guests being present from New-York, Newark, Jersey City, Paterson, Morristown and other places. The action of Bishop Wigger was the theme of much unfavorable comment. The rule of the Roman Catholies with Protestants, in the Newark Diocese, is that no creenony can take place in a church, which partakes of the form of a sacrament, nor can any regular ceremony be held, it is provided, however, that a modified ceremony can be held to a make a legal contract.

Francis Andrews, a electic of the Lake Smore and Michigan Southern Railroad Company, testified that in January, 1881, he was in the employ of the Eric Company. One morning Supple asked him if he would like to make some money. He asked for an explanation, and Supple suggested that Mr. White, the paymaster, left his money in the office over night, and that it would only be necessary to get rid of the operator there to scenze it. Andrews replied that he was not in that minimes, and the subject was dropped. Chief Murphy testified that when sipple was searched some telegraph blanks were found in his pockets. On one of them was written the first sentence of one of the messages sent to Pay-

The detendant was placed on the stand, and he made a flat denial of all the testimony pointing to his guilt. He denied that he was the person who had possession of the telegraph wires on the night of the attempted robbery. He said that he was in the Pennsylvania Railroad depot during the whole of that day. He went to supper, and then returned to the depot, remaining until 9:30 p. m., when he went home. The case will probably be closed to-day.

A largely-attended meeting of the creditors of the Columbian Insurance Company was held yesterday in the roems of the Martime Association. Its object was to consider a proposition of settlement made by the receiver. The company became bankrupt in January, 1866, and after several temporary receivers had been appointed George A. Osgood, a son-in-law of Commodore Vanderbilt, became the receiver. He called the meeting to consider a proposition to pay the estate $75,000. Claims of upward of $1,000,000 were represented. Joseph J. Bowman represented Mr. Osgood and maged the acceptance of the proposed settlement. Mr. McDonald, counsel for the ciaimants, opposed it. Rush Hawkins spoke against it in behalf of numerous clents in Maine, R. W. Cameron, of South Wilham-st., and ex-Judge Fallerton also took ground against such a compromise. Finally it was voted to reject the offer of $75,000, and resolutions were passed expressing

MICHAEL DAVITT AND THE LAND LEAGUE.

Members of the Land League are excited over the question whether or not Michael Davitt, the founder of the League, shall be supported by the branch or ganizations while in this country. The discussion was brought before the Executive Council of the National Land League on Wednesday night, and yesterday it was continued by the leaders of the organization. It is charged by Dr. William B. Walkaec, the president of the Irish National Land League, that a committee of critizens has taken the privilege of getting the Irish agitator away from the Land League's direction, and intends to claim Davit as its own until he leaves the city. This the committee denies and it remains an open question, to be decided when Mr. Davitt arrives. Professor J. B. Brophy, the chairman of the Citizens Reception Committee, said to a Tribury. reporter yesterday that the committee would receive Mr. Davitt whether the Land League opposed them or not. "The persons who composethe committee, said Mr. Erophy." will be entirely independent of any organization and will be the hosts of Mr. Davitt whether the Land League opposed them or not. In fact, we have decided to entertain the man and leave his theories of government to be discussed atterward. We have engaged the Acadeny of Music for June 19, and we will choose speakers irrespective of nationality or party. But from the inception of this movement it was not the intention of the committee to antagonize the Land Leagues in any way. We have decided that a reception given to a man by the mas of the people would be a true of the proper of the Land League to the Land Leagues

PERSONS TIRED OF LIFE.

Mrs. Anna Menzel, the wife of a German beer-seller at No. 762 Terd-ave., attempted to kill herself at an early bonz yesterday morating by shooting herself in the breast with her bushand's pistol. She was taken to Bellevie Hospitar, where it was said she had a chance of recovery, although her wound was dangerous. Mrs. Menzel is forty-six years old, but she has no children. She has been jenious of her imband for a long time because he would not permit her to stay in the beer-stop and take part in the management of the basiness. He was asleep in bed when sin shot herself. Awakened by the report of the pistol, he got up and found her gasping on the floor. In describing the scene to a reporter yesterday, Menzel said that he told his wife that it she did not die she might go to blazes, for he would have nothing more to do with her. He thought that she was too dangerous a soloma to have about the place. If she got woil and he allowed her to live with nim again, she might shoot him his sleep.

silowed her to live with him again, she might shoot him in his sleep.

An attempt at nari-kurl was made at Ne. 72 Wattast, yesterday morning by Neiger Andreas, a Swede who arrived in this country about three montes ago in great poverty. He was twenty-two years old and he had left his native country to seek employment. Being unsuecessful here, he became despendent. He told the land-lord of the boarthing home where he was, the other day, that he had made up his much to return kome. His slowly was all spout, however, and he saw that he was likely to become a pasper. In a fit of despair her stabled himself in the abdomen several times at 9 a. m. yesterday. He was made to the Cambers Street. Hospital, where he probably will die.

There is a day school for Hebrew children at No. 105 East Broadway, and for several years it has been conducted by Julius Porges, a maire of Peath, Hangary, when the children entered the front school-room at 4 p. m. yesterday they found the principal dead, hanging by a rope fastened to a nati which he had driven into the door between the rooms. On the desk were two letters.

One read as follows:

Let Mr. Hoffman and Mr. Chuner Itwo school trustee trow of my suicide. They will arrange everything lumesteely, Mr. Gottleen in Houstoner, should see that my affair rift the Ansher Emeth, society are kept secret. I wish it burried questly totilieb and fosenbaum have caused meath. I forgive them.

The Populas

be buried questly. Gottlieb and Rosenbaum have caused my death. I torgive from.

The second letter was headed "My last will and testament." It began with a long account of private debts which he owed, and of his property, which consisted mainly of the stock in a small tilturate store at No. 87. East Third-st. He next gave the information that his life had been inaured for $6,000. He desired that the sum of $450 should be paid to the Ansher Emeth Society, "to save his family from disgrace," and he wished his wife to go to Vienna as soon as possible. Ten years ago Porges was the president of an insurance company in Pestu, Huggary, and he became a defailer and came to this country. He was the treasurer of the Ansher Emeth Society. Recently it was suspected that he had appropriated to his own uses some of the funds of the society, and he was asked to give an accounting. He kept premising to do it, but he broke his promises until the patience of the other members of the society was exhausted. Mr. Gottlieb and Mr. Rosenbaura, two of the members were outepeken and pressing in their demands.
